Letter of Explanation : Vinicius Medeiros Chaves Role

Vinicius Medeiros Chaves plays a central role in our business venture, particularly in its operational and strategic aspects.

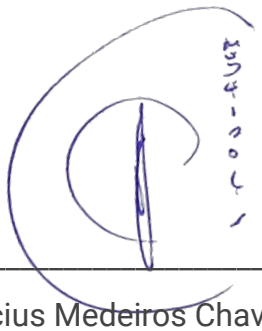

As the CEO and CFO of Bringfy, the startup based in Canada, Vinicius brings invaluable expertise in financial management and strategic leadership. He is also a partner with Olavo in two other ventures in Brazil: e-Carreto, a startup closely related to Bringfy's operations, and Probase. Vinicius's extensive experience and entrepreneurial acumen make him a vital asset to our venture.

In light of Fransergio Polaco's departure from the company due to personal issues, Vinicius has stepped up to CFO to ensure the seamless continuity of operations. Moreover, Vinicius continues to serve as a key liaison between e-Carreto and Bringfy, leveraging his expertise in financial, logistics, and tracking technologies to optimize collaboration between the two entities. Additionally, he maintains strong connections with our Brazilian investors, fostering trust and facilitating ongoing support for our Canadian operations.

In summary, Vinicius Medeiros Chaves remains instrumental in driving our venture forward, embodying the spirit of adaptability and innovation.
